

Description

The Radmilja necropolis is located in Vidovo polje, three kilometers west of Stolac, Bosnia and Herzegovina. There are 135 stecci at the site today. In percentage, this is one of the most decorated necropoli. There are even 63 tombstones that are decorated with a wide range of ornamental motifs. The symbol of this necropolis is certainly a male figure with unnaturally enlarged right hand raised, while his left arm is leaning on his side.

Radmilja is today regarded as the most beautiful and certainly most famous necropolis of them all. It is UNESCO world heritage monument. It dates to 15th century.

Specifications

Country: Bosnia and Herzegovina

Region: Herzegovina-Neretva Canton

Site: Radimlja Necropolis

Age: Medieval

Provenance: Radimlja Necropolis

Digitization method: Photogrammetry

Photos / scans number: 2247

Model URL: <https://gdh.org/model/radimlja-near-stolac-bih-drone-model/>